

Quiet Please – Documentary about Misophonia

Spots where triggers (other than chewing) are named

2:00-2:33 There is a black screen with a quote right before this: “Misophonia sufferers experience a physiological response...”

11:40-11:50 This is midway into the poem reading

34:37-34:40 – Two student artists are talking. It comes shortly after the non-miso says, “You had headphones on and you didn’t even hear me, I was just talking to air.”

38:32-39:15 – Comes shortly after the male in a maroon shirt says, “Misophonia really effected school because it was tough being in a room with 300 people taking class...”

48:45-48:55 – Dr. Jennifer Brout is talking. It’s shortly after you see her on her laptop.

1:09:38-1:10:10 – This is the interview of the family in which everyone has misophonia except the dad. It comes shortly after one of the daughters says, “Some of our house rules are definitely no chewing with your mouth open...”

1:12:15-1:14:20 – Male in plaid shirt is talking about his relationship with his mom. It’s shortly after he says, “She goes out of her way to whatever she can do within her power to make me more comfortable she does.”

1:17:10-1:17:15 - It’s shortly after you see a picture of a covered bridge and the text, “The Dombroski Family: New Hampshire”.
